WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

THE EXPERIENCE OF A LIFETIME

The University of Sydney's Study Abroad and Exchange programs provide students with the exciting opportunity to add an international perspective to their education at a leading Australian university with a reputation for excellence in teaching and research.

The Study Abroad and Exchange programs allow students already enrolled at an internationally accredited university to explore their academic interests and cross-cultural understanding by studying at the University of Sydney for one or two semesters.

Students enrolled in these programs will not be awarded a degree from the University of Sydney; instead they can transfer credits to their home university upon completion of their study period in Australia. Students can choose from over 4000 different units of study from a diverse range of faculties and schools. In addition, Study Abroad students can choose to take an internship as a part of their enrolment at the University of Sydney.

Many units of study (classes or subjects) focus on Australian topics or offer field trips to locations throughout New South Wales and surrounding states. Our research is some of the strongest in Australia, and Study Abroad and Exchange students will have opportunities to participate in this research from a theoretical and practical standpoint. When you leave, you'll have developed the skills to become a leader in whatever field you choose. Our former students include Prime Ministers, Nobel Laureates, Academy Award winners, business leaders and medical pioneers, who have all benefited from our determination to develop curious minds that embrace challenges and devour knowledge, reveal new perspectives and devise solutions.

SYDNEY IS WELCOMING

Sydney is a bustling global city with amenities and opportunities to match. It is set on one of the world’s most beautiful harbours, close to over 35 stunning golden sand beaches. The University of Sydney’s Camperdown/Darlington campus is located within minutes of the city centre by efficient public transport.

SYDNEY CLIMATE
AVERAGE TEMPERATURES

SYDNEY AVERAGE TEMPERATURES
Season	Months	Temp	C°	F°
Summer	Dec–Feb	Warm and humid	18–26	64–79
Autumn	Mar–May	Warm to cool	15–22	59–72
Winter	June–Aug	Cool to cold	08–17	48–63
Spring	Sept–Nov	Cool to warm	13–22	55–72

SYDNEY’S PEOPLE

Sydney is one of the most multicultural cities in the world (around 25 percent of Sydney’s population was born overseas, while a further 20 percent are children of those immigrants). More than a quarter of Sydney residents speak a language other than English, most commonly Mandarin, Cantonese, Arabic, Greek, Vietnamese, Italian, Spanish, Korean and Indonesian.

As the meeting place for such a host of nations and traditions, Sydney is the perfect place to experience different cultures, languages and perspectives.

Water polo

Being a student at the University of Sydney isn't just about study. Becoming involved in non-academic activities at the University helps you develop a network of friends and broaden your outlook and skills.

University of Sydney Union (USU)

For a small semester fee you can obtain a membership to the University of Sydney Union which gives you access to more than 200 union-backed clubs and services. You can't help but find someone who shares your interests; from opera to Oxfam, comedy to commerce, religion to Rubik's Cubes, there is something for everyone. The USU has extensive entertainment offerings with bustling bars, fantastic bands and themed celebrations throughout the year.

Union membership also helps you save money. Once you pay your semester fee you'll receive your Access Card, which gives you food, drink and shopping discounts on and off-campus.

Represent yourself

The Students' Representative Council (SRC) and Sydney University Postgraduate Representative Association (SUPRA) represent, campaign and advocate for students across the University. SRC and SUPRA caseworkers can help you with academic appeals and queries, tenancy and work-related problems. Its legal service can provide you with advice on most legal matters. A second-hand bookshop allows you to sell and buy old books at a low cost.

BUDDY CLUB AND PRE-SEMESTER TRIPS

9

Let's Go surfing by Mikala Wilbow

Overlooking Hunter Valley, Paul Blackmore, Destination NSW

Each semester, the Study Abroad and Exchange Unit coordinates the Buddy Club, a social mentoring program designed to help you build social networks, engage with local students, adjust to life in Australia and make the most out of your time abroad.

In the past we have organised bushwalking in the Royal National Park, trivia evenings, pub nights, yum cha, harbour cruises, fancy dress parties, concerts, sports events, fairs, dinner parties, barbeques, guided tours and special guest presentations.

Pre-semester trips

To help you settle into the University of Sydney, we offer pre-semester trips. These take place the weekend prior to your orientation session.

Coming to Australia for a semester can be a challenge. Our pre-orientation trips are a fantastic opportunity for you to meet people from around the world who are in the same situation as you. It's a great way of making new friends and joining a supportive community that will last beyond your time at uni.

Pre-orientation weekend activities include learning to surf on the NSW south coast, visiting the scenic Blue Mountains, and travelling to the beautiful Hunter Valley wine country north of Sydney.

Staff from the Study Abroad and Exchange Unit will accompany you on your journey and will be handy to answer your every question about your semester studying at the University of Sydney.

Information about these trips will be distributed in your pre-departure emails. Before making a booking, check for clashes with third-party provider orientations.

The Study Abroad and Exchange Unit will invite you to join a Facebook group. By joining, you'll be able to find out what's on, and chat with your peers prior to and during your semester at Sydney.

Choosing where to live can be one of the biggest decisions you will make when studying abroad, but it does not need to be daunting – and you aren't alone. There are plenty of options in Sydney, and we offer support services to help you make the right choice.

The University of Sydney can help you find a suitable place to live, and give you ongoing accommodation assistance and advice to make the move to Sydney as smooth as possible.

TEMPORARY ACCOMMODATION

You may wish to arrange some temporary accommodation in Sydney so you have peace of mind upon arrival. Read our advice at sydney.edu.au/accommodation/short_term

Your other option is to be welcomed to Sydney and directed to Base Hostel when you arrive at the airport. Base Hotel is the temporary home for many newly-arrived Study Abroad and Exchange students studying here.

Information about Base offerings will be sent in your pre-departure emails.

LIVING ON-CAMPUS

The University offers a range of catered and self-catered on-campus accommodation. Demand can be high so it's important to apply as far ahead as possible, to increase your chances of securing the accommodation option of your choice. While contracts are generally for the academic year, single semester spaces are offered when there are vacancies.

There are several options for on-campus accommodation (costs are in Australian dollars and are indicative only).

UNIVERSITY-OWNED ACCOMMODATION

The University owns the following fully furnished accommodation:

International House: This accommodation offers twin-share study-bedrooms and en-suite or communal bathrooms in a college-style environment.

Cost: approx. $356 to $664 per week.
sydney.edu.au/internationalhouse

Terraced Housing consists of single and twin-shared bedrooms in 43 terraced houses located near the University. All bedrooms are fully furnished and residents share a living area.

Cost: approx. $183 to $254 per week.
sydney.edu.au/accommodation/on_campus/terraced_housing

Darlington House accommodates 54 students in 12 male-only or female-only self-contained apartments in a modern apartment building.

Cost: approx. $218 to $248 per week.
sydney.edu.au/accommodation/on_campus/darlington_house

SYDNEY UNIVERSITY VILLAGE (SUV)

SUV offers a range of self-catered apartments. You can apply for a studio, two, four or five bedroom apartments. Apply as early as possible.

Cost: approx. $256 to $449 per week.
sydneyuv.com.au

RESIDENTIAL COLLEGES

The University has seven affiliated residential colleges on the Camperdown and Darlington campuses, with furnished rooms and all meals provided. Apply directly to your chosen college. The cost varies between $370 and $500 per week.

sydney.edu.au/colleges

LIVING OFF-CAMPUS

Sydney is a large city and there are many suburbs that are an easy commute by public transport to the University of Sydney. It is a good idea not to make any permanent arrangements for private accommodation prior to arrival as it is important to inspect properties before committing to any tenancy agreements.

PRIVATE STUDENT RESIDENCES

These are furnished rooms in shared or self-contained apartments in residential buildings for students, usually located within walking distance of the Darlington/ Camperdown Campus. They include UniLodge (unilodge.com.au/sydney) and Urbanest (urbanest.com.au).

Cost: approx. $334 to 589 per week, self-catered (six-month contract).

PRIVATE ACCOMMODATION

The University's accommodation database, managed by Student Accommodation Services, lists hundreds of accommodation offers. You can access the database as soon as you are enrolled at the University, usually one month before the start of semester.

sydney.edu.au/current_students/accommodation/search/access

Private accommodation (sourced by you)

You can find plenty of suitable accommodation on non-University affiliated websites, such as:

domain.com.au
gumtree.com.au
au.easyroommate.com flatmates.com.au
flatmatefinders.com.au sydneyexchange.com.au

Please be alert to scams when searching for accommodation.

Once you get to Sydney you're not alone. We run a wide range of services to help you get the most out of your time here, to prepare for life beyond university, and to help you if times get tough.

These are just a few of the ways we support your health, wellbeing, and academic life during your time with us. For more information about the services we offer, visit sydney.edu.au/current_students

STUDY ABROAD INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

sydney.edu.au/stabex-intern

PROGRAM DETAILS

The Study Abroad Internship Program gives you the opportunity to complement your academic study with meaningful industry experience. As an intern you will complete:

- 15 days/120 hours of meaningful industry placement
- 8 hours of professional development
- assessment including 4 reflective journals and 1 final project report.

The Study Abroad Internship is worth 6 credit points. In general, you will enrol in three units of study plus the internship. This offers you the chance to:

- develop familiarity with the Australian workplace culture
- apply your learning in real workplace situations
- enhance your interpersonal, communication and cross-cultural skills
- gain a competitive advantage in the graduate employment market by developing global connections in your chosen profession.

ELIGIBILITY

Study Abroad Internships are allocated on a competitive basis. To be considered for this program you need to:

- satisfy all the entry requirements of the Study Abroad program
- achieve higher than a cumulative GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale or a 'B' on the ECTS grading scale
- complete at least 1.5 years of tertiary study
- sit an interview after your arrival in Sydney.

HOW TO APPLY

Simply submit the following documents along with your Study Abroad application:

- resume
- cover letter.

Please note: Every effort will be made to offer internships to all eligible students but placement cannot be guaranteed prior to the interview. In case your application is unsuccessful, we advise you to also enrol for additional units of study.

INTERNSHIP AREAS

Internships are offered in the following areas:

- accounting
- advertising
- architecture
- engineering
- environmental science
- events and public relations
- film and television
- finance
- government and policy
- graphic design
- human resource management
- information technology
- marine ecology
- marketing
- media and communications
- medical research
- not for profit
- research

- visual arts/curatorship.

If your area of interest is not listed, please contact the Internship Program Coordinator to discuss alternate options.

Email: study.abroadinternships@sydney.edu.au

"My experience as an intern was great. I cannot say enough how good it was for me to actually have time in an office, and see what it is like to work for a serious company. This experience opened up my mind to the world of business and life in an office. It has inspired me to complete my undergraduate studies and continue on for an MBA."

To be eligible for Study Abroad or Exchange programs at the University of Sydney you need to:

- achieve the equivalent of a 'Credit' or 'Good Average, or a cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale or a 'C' on the ECTS Grading scale
- meet any specific academic requirements (such as submitting a portfolio for Visual Arts)
- have a letter of nomination from your home university, if you are an Exchange student.

If you wish to study with us as a Study Abroad student in Semester 1, you can apply directly to the Study Abroad program. You can take introductory first-year classes across the University that can be potentially transferred to future university study in your home country.

For more information about the entry requirements for high school graduates, please email the Study Abroad and Exchange Unit.

The 2014 Study Abroad tuition fee is A$11,650 per semester.

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

You will be considered to have satisfied our English proficiency requires if you can provide evidence that you have completed at least one year of full-time university study in an English-speaking country or in a tertiary institution where the language of instruction (ie, teaching, assessment and examination) was in English.

Otherwise you will require:

- IELTS Overall band score of 6.5 or better with minimum of 6.0 in each band
- TOEFL (Paper based) 577 or better plus TWE (Test of Written English) at 4.5 or better
- TOEFL (Internet based) iBT score of 90 or better with a score of 21 or better in the Writing section.

SELECT YOUR SUBJECTS

Select up to 12 units of study for approval by International Student Office and faculty staff. A full time load at the University of Sydney is between 18 and 24 credit points, however it is recommended that you get approval for many subjects at the time of application.

To search for available subjects please go to sydney.edu.au/courses and select 'Units of Study' from the drop-down search option. You can search by keyword, title or unit of study code (if known).

Before selecting any subjects, please check that:

- the level of study is appropriate (1000-4000 units are undergraduate, 5000-6000 units are postgraduate)
- you meet the prerequisites.
- the subject is offered in the correct semester (Semester 1 is February to June; Semester 2 is July to November).

CREDIT

Prior to selecting your units your study, we recommend that you obtain advice from your home university academic advisors. Make sure you will receive credits for your proposed academic program at the University of Sydney.

STUDY ABROAD

Visit our Study Abroad and Exchange website (sydney.edu.au/studyabroad) and click 'How to apply'. Download and complete the Study Abroad and Student Exchange application form.

Attach all required documentation, as outlined on the application form. Ensure documents are properly certified and translated.

You can submit your application to:

- the University of Sydney (directly)
- your home university's Study Abroad office, if they have a current agreement with the University of Sydney (check the list at sydney.edu.au/stabex-partners)
- one of the University of Sydney's authorised representatives (refer to sydney.edu.au/ug-int-english)

STUDENT EXCHANGE

Attach all required documentation, as outlined on the application form. Ensure documents are properly certified and translated.

Submit your application to the Exchange Office at your home university. To check the list of University of Sydney exchange partners, see sydney.edu.au/stabex-partners

Contact your home university's Exchange Office to get advice on the appropriate procedures. You need to be nominated by your home university in order to be an Exchange student.

THE SYDNEY SUMMER & WINTER SCHOOL

In addition to the Study Abroad and Exchange programs, the University of Sydney offers an intensive high-quality Summer and Winter School program, on a full-fee paying basis. You can choose from more than 174 undergraduate and postgraduate units of study from a wide range of faculties.

Summer School runs from December with two start dates; December and early January. Most units are taught over a six-week period, although some are shorter.

The Winter School starts in early July and runs for four weeks.

As these programs run for less than three months, students may attend on a tourist visa.

Can I combine Summer or Winter School with a Study Abroad or Exchange semester?

If you enrol at the University of Sydney for Semester 1, which begins in March, you can take Summer School beforehand, or Winter School after your semester ends.

If you enrol at the University of Sydney for Semester 2, which begins in late July, you can take Winter School beforehand, or Summer School after your semester ends.

Eligibility

To be eligible to attend the Summer or Winter School, you must have the prerequisites to enrol in your desired unit(s) of study and meet the English language proficiency requirements.

sydney.edu.au/summer

CENTRE FOR ENGLISH TEACHING (CET)

If you do not meet the English language requirement for the Study Abroad and Exchange programs, you can study English on campus before your program.

English programs

The Centre for English Teaching (CET) offers courses designed to help you reach your English language goals, such as obtaining entrance into the Study Abroad and Exchange programs or obtaining complete confidence in communicating in English.

Course include: University Pathway Programs and Professional Pathway Programs.
