James Cook University

A brighter future for life in the tropics, world-wide

James Cook University (JCU) is Australia's leading university in the tropics. Offering excellence in teaching and research, JCU is a vibrant three-campus university with main campus locations in the tropical Queensland cities of Townsville and Cairns and the city-state of Singapore. Total student enrolments are more than 18,000 and growing, including over 5,000 international students from 100 countries. There are over 300 programs available to international students to study at JCU.

A natural choice for study

Significant for JCU students in Australia is the university's unique natural location. Visitors and residents to Cairns and Townsville in far North Queensland enjoy a huge range of leisure activities including diving on the Great Barrier Reef, visiting the ancient rainforests and waterfalls in the many national parks, bushwalking, camping, fishing and visiting historic outback regions or the picturesque farming villages of the Atherton Tablelands.

Townsville is a thriving coastal city and port with a population of over 181,000, making it Australia's largest tropical city. Situated in the dry tropics, most days are sunny with an average daytime temperature of between 25°C and 30°C (77°F and 86°F).

Cairns is one of Australia's most popular tourist destinations and has a diverse population of around 150,000. The city has a cosmopolitan atmosphere with many cafes, restaurants and markets.

Singapore's unique characteristics and accessible infrastructure make it one of the best places for study and work in Asia, providing students with an exciting platform for professional fulfilment and cross-cultural interaction.

Global quality degrees and teaching excellence

JCU is ranked in the top 4% of universities worldwide*, and as a leading research university, JCU provides excellent facilities for teaching and learning. The unique location of James Cook University allows nationally significant and international research to be conducted by both staff and students. Total research related income at JCU reached $52.6 million in 2010, including funding from government, competitive grants and industry. JCU is a member of the national alliance, Innovative Research Universities and has as its vision to be one of the world's leading research universities in the tropics.

James Cook University's study areas are delivered through its four faculties:

- Faculty of Arts, Education and Social Sciences
- Faculty of Law, Business and the Creative Arts
- Faculty of Medicine, Health and Molecular Sciences
- Faculty of Science and Engineering

Supportive study environment

JCU recognises that knowledge has the power to change lives and strives to create a student centred learning environment where students learn to take full advantage of their university experience. With friendly campuses, smaller class sizes, accessible teaching staff, and excellent support services including study skills and student mentor programs, JCU students receive the personal attention they need to achieve their best.

The JCU Pathway College offers a variety of English language, foundation and diploma programs in Townsville and Cairns, providing you with a clear pathway to your chosen JCU degree.

The Pathway College currently operates from the JCU Cairns campus, the Cairns campus of TNQIT, and the Townsville campus of BRIT.

English Language Programs

The JCU Pathway College offers English language programs designed to help you qualify for tertiary study, successfully sit an English language exam, or improve your English communication skills. If you meet the academic entry requirements for a degree but not the English Language entry requirements, JCU can issue you with a 'packaged offer' consisting of a period of Academic English language studies through the JCU Pathway College, plus an offer into the JCU degree program. This 'package' will allow you to receive a student visa for the entire duration of your studies. The length of the English study period will depend on your

English language level at the time of application (as determined by an IELTS score or equivalent) and the English requirement for your chosen course.

English for Academic Purposes

English for Academic Purposes is taught through our Direct Entry English Program (DEEP), which will equip you with the English language skills required to study at a tertiary institution in Australia. Classes focus on academic requirements and expectations, and learning strategies needed at a tertiary level. Once you have successfully completed the Direct Entry English Program, you will be eligible to enter a range of certificate and diploma courses at the JCU Pathway College, Tropical North Queensland Institute of TAFE and the Barrier Reef Institute of TAFE, as well as specific undergraduate and postgraduate courses at James Cook University.

General English (GE) Program

General English Intensive courses are also available. Courses are designed to develop your confidence in using English for general purposes. You will improve your skills in speaking, listening, reading and writing, as well as grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation so you can communicate more effectively in English. If desired you can develop your skills in English to a point where you can progress to the Direct Entry English Program (DEEP 1). Courses options range from elementary to advanced levels. For more details on the JCU Pathway College programs visit www.jcupathwaycollege.com.au
