CQUniversity campuses

No matter what your situation or where you live, you can study at CQUniversity by distance education, or at one of the many campuses around Australia. There are six campuses in Central Queensland – Bundaberg, Emerald, Gladstone, Mackay, Noosa and Rockhampton – and four campuses located in the cities of Brisbane, the Gold Coast, Melbourne and Sydney. With small classes and relaxed surroundings, our students benefit from a supportive study environment while studying an internationally recognised degree.

Quality on-campus facilities ensure learning is delivered 'in context', taught in a similar setting to that of a real world situation. ## DISTANCE EDUCATION

CQUniversity is one of Australia's leading providers of distance education with many of our degrees offered in this study mode. Distance education gives you the flexibility to study a university degree in your own home at your own pace, without needing to visit a campus. This allows you to balance your study with your family and work commitments and provides an opportunity for those who live in rural and remote areas or internationally to access university study without the need to relocate.

CQUniversity prides itself on ensuring that all its distance education programs are delivered using engaging teaching methods. More importantly you have access to a number of support services to ensure your learning experience is well supported including electronic library resources, study material provided in hard copy or online, access to online lectures, weekend or online orientation sessions, online discussion forums, and access to experienced distance education student mentors. Like on-campus students, when studying by distance education you have access to all CQUniversity libraries. You can visit any CQUniversity library or utilise the range of online resources available to support your learning.

Even when studying by distance education, some individual courses within your degree may require you to attend residential school on campus. Residential schools are an important part of the programs offered at CQUniversity allowing you to network with lecturers, students and industry specialists, whilst getting hands-on, practical work experience in your chosen field of study. Contact us to find out if your degree includes a residential school and to find out how to apply to study by distance education.
