ACCOMMODATION: YOUR NEW HOME

Choosing to study abroad will provide you with an exciting opportunity to live independently; meet new people; make new friends – and because Aberdeen really is a truly student-focused city, you'll meet people from all over the world.

Finding somewhere to stay

The first thing you'll need is somewhere to stay; a place to call home. Robert Gordon University has various purpose-built accommodation developments situated in the city and at the Garthdee campus.

We call these 'Halls of Residence' and these halls are made up of self-catered apartments or 'flats'.

The flats are well equipped and in the main halls you'll have your own bedroom for some private space, while the kitchen and living areas are shared – usually with between four and seven other students.

Some of the accommodation is en-suite, whilst the remainder has shared washing and toilet facilities. If you are on a tight budget, we offer a shared room option and at the top end of the market there are self-contained one-bedroom flats.

The rent you pay generally includes 24/7 high speed internet access, all utilities, and personal contents insurance.

For the most current information about accommodation and up-to-date costs at RGU please contact +44 (0)1224 262129 or visit our website:

www.rgu.ac.uk/living/accommodation

We would be delighted to help and look forward to welcoming you to Aberdeen. You can make bookings for University accommodation online at:

www.rgu.ac.uk/roomonline

To apply you must have accepted an unconditional or conditional offer.

Private sector accommodation

We appreciate that Halls of Residence are not for everyone coming to University, especially if you have a family or are looking for something smaller or a bit quieter.

Prices in the private sector start at around £80 per week (excluding bills). Please see our website under 'Alternative Accommodation' for links to www.rgustudentpad.co.uk and other advertising sites for private flats/rooms.

Alternatively, contact our Private Sector Advisor on +44 (0)1224 262130.

Please book accommodation as soon as you can, so you can have more chance of getting your first choice.

For postgraduate students, we estimate that you will need around £8,800 per year for living costs for a 14-month course. This figure does not include your course fees, or the cost of transport to and from your own country.

To plan your budget, the student calculator available at www.studentcalculator.org.uk can help you build a lifestyle budget and see how it balances by week, month or over a year. It also shows you ways to spend your time whilst you are in the UK.

Student discounts and offers are widely available in many shops, cafes, restaurants and cinemas.

OUR UNIVERSITY PREPARATION COURSES

PRE-SESSIONAL ENGLISH PROGRAMME

The summer Pre-Sessional English Language Programme (PSP) is for students who want to study at Robert Gordon University but who have not yet reached the required level in English language.

The focus of the PSP is helping you to cope with the demands of studying at a UK university and living in an English-speaking environment. The syllabus combines grammar, writing, communication, listening and reading skills.

The PSP is offered as two modules of five or six weeks. Each module consists of approximately 100 hours of lessons (20 hours in class per week).

Module one has been developed for students who currently have an International English Language Testing System (IELTS) score of 5.5 overall or higher.

Module two has been developed for students who currently have an International English Language Testing System (IELTS) score of 6.0 overall or higher.

You can study each module or just module 2, dependent on your ability.

There is no need for you to re-sit an IELTS exam during the programme as you will be continuously assessed and will take mid-course and end-of-course tests.

These tests are made up of various academic English language related tasks and will enable you to get to the level of English you need to confidently study on one of our undergraduate and postgraduate full-time courses.

On completion of this pre-sessional English programme, you will then meet with the English language requirements set by the UK Border Agency.

For an up-to-date list of PSP dates and further information relating to this service, please visit:

ABERDEEN: A COSMOPOLITAN CITY

Aberdeen is Scotland's third most populous city with a total estimated population of 218,000. The city is affectionately known as the Granite City and the Silver City with the Golden Sands, due to the majority of its striking buildings being made of pale granite that was quarried nearby at the Hill of Rubislaw. Aberdeen is also known as the Oil and Energy Capital of Europe.

The petroleum industry in Aberdeen began with the discovery of significant oil deposits in the North Sea during the mid 20th century. Although today's reserves are still flowing fast, the city is successfully redeveloping itself as a research and development hub for energy.

Union Square is the newest in a number of shopping and entertainment destinations in the heart of Aberdeen. Built at a cost of over £250 million, Union Square boasts over 60 stores and restaurants (including Apple, Zara, Hollister, Nandos and YO! Sushi), a 10-screen cinema and 203-bedroom hotel right in the centre of the city. There are also many specialist food shops within the city, where you can buy all the familiar foods from your home country.

Due to Aberdeen's economic success, the city has its own international airport from where you can fly direct to a number of fantastic European destinations from as little as £50 ($100) return. The rail and road links are also excellent; making it easy for you to explore everything Scotland (and the UK) has to offer.

Independent research of our international students also tells us that they rate Aberdeen as a safe city in which to study and live.

ABERDEENSHIRE: THE GREAT OUTDOORS

The historic county of Aberdeenshire has a great diversity of scenery, including sandy beaches and stunning coastlines in the east and the Moray Firth in the north. Inland are the Grampian Mountains and part of the Cairngorms National Park.

You can also explore the county following Castle Trails, The Whisky Trail and the Victorian Heritage Trail. Surfing, kayaking, mountain climbing, snowboarding and white water rafting are also all within your reach.

It's no surprise that Aberdeenshire has been named the number one region for quality of life for the second year running. (Bank of Scotland Quality of Life League, Dec 2010)

INTERNATIONAL REPUTATION

Robert Gordon University is proud of its tradition of attracting international students. This year over 800 full-time international students from 132 countries chose to study at our University. The resulting mix of cultures – local, national and international – provides a rich experience for both staff and students. Embedded within our University’s vision is the want to increase and celebrate our diverse student population and ensure we meet the needs such diversity brings.

A VIBRANT INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY

With over 25,000 students, you'll be part of a lively and diverse scene when you come to Aberdeen. It offers everything you would expect from a vibrant city – shops, theatres, cinemas, bars, clubs, concerts and restaurants.

STUDY ABROAD AND ERASMUS

As an international student, you understand how studying abroad as part of your degree can be a rewarding and life-changing experience. It will broaden your education as well as develop your confidence and independence.

Robert Gordon University participates in the Erasmus Programme, the European Commission's flagship educational exchange programme, which was introduced with the aim of increasing student mobility within Europe. As an international student, you would have the opportunity to study at another University within Europe as well as in the UK.

Our undergraduates have the opportunity to spend either a study period or work placement abroad for one semester or a whole year, depending on their course. And for some Masters courses, there is the possibility of doing a short term project with one of our European partners.

The University has links with over 67 universities in 17 different countries, many of which teach in English.

YOUR CAREER

RGU's graduates don't just get jobs, they get good ones, with 84.9% securing jobs commensurate with their qualifications, ranking it 11th on this measure with starting salaries at an impressive £20,897. The Sunday Times University Guide 2012

Including part-time job fairs at the start of term
- Careers Fairs
We organise and host two main Careers Fairs as well as specialist area fairs

WORK PLACEMENTS (INTERSHIPS)

In today's competitive job market, work experience gives graduates something extra. The skills a student learns on placement are invaluable assets when developing a graduate career. 90% of our undergraduate degrees and many of our postgraduate degrees include a professional placement experience. Over the placement period you will get to see the workplace from an 'informed' perspective, allowing you to put into practice the theories, strategies and skills that you have discovered during your studies.

WORKING PART-TIME WHILST YOU ARE STUDYING

As an international student it may be possible for you to work in the UK whilst you are studying, however your nationality will determine what conditions you need to meet so that you can work in the UK. The visa stamp on your passport will indicate if you are allowed to work or not.

As an adult student with a suitable visa:

- You are allowed to work part-time during term time up to a maximum of 20 hours a week and full-time during vacations
- The work you do must not fill a full-time permanent vacancy (other than on a recognised Foundation Programme), and you cannot be self-employed

Due to Aberdeen being a good sized, thriving, social city, there are lots of opportunities for part-time employment in restaurants, cafes, bars, shops, cinema and theatres. Some students also choose to take a part-time position which relates to their career ambitions, working in an office or agency environment.

We know that planning for your career will have big influences on which university you choose to continue your education. At Robert Gordon University, we have a number of resources you can access to help with your career planning before you even set foot on campus. For more details, please visit:
