

A distinctive university

With a history dating back to 1821, Heriot-Watt University has established a reputation for world-class teaching and practical, leading-edge research, which has made the university one of the top UK universities for business and industry. Heriot-Watt deliver degree programmes to 11,800 students in 150 countries around the world. The university offers BBA programme in Bangladesh through its approved learning partner BiMS – Bangladesh Institute of Management Studies.

A leading university

Heriot-Watt is recognised internationally as a centre for high calibre research. Heriot-Watt has been rated as a leading research institution by the RAE, the national review body, and is now in the top 35 universities in the UK for research.

A growing university

Heriot-Watt has 4 campuses: 3 in the UK - Edinburgh, Scottish Borders and Orkney - and 1 in Dubai. £35 million investment in the Dubai Campus will treble capacity to accommodate up to 6,000 students. Recently, the university has been chosen to establish a new campus in Malaysia, at an investment of £20 million. BiMS students will have opportunities to 'transfer-credit' to one of these campuses and locations worldwide.

An international BBA programme

Graduates with a BBA degree will be equipped to work in a variety of management and professional positions. British Council is the authorised centre for conducting final stage BBA exams. Students who complete the BBA degree in Bangladesh receive the same certificate as the students in the UK. Students also have the opportunity to attend the convocation in UK.

A leader in success

Heriot-Watt has been named as Scottish University of the Year 2011/12 in the Sunday Times University Guide. The Award was made on the basis of Heriot-Watt's innovation, teaching excellence and research as well as first-rate facilities, the employability of the University's graduates and of recent successes in the National Student Survey (NSS).
